APPLICATION CHECKLIST

Please provide the following in your application for this Award:

Verification of Enrolment Letter. This is an official document prepared by the university/college/institution that provides a snapshot of the student's academic status and generally confirms the following information:

- Your Name
- Student Identification Number
- Your program of study
- The number of credit units you are enrolled in for the academic period
- The number of credit units you are enrolled in and/or have successfully completed
- The start and end dates of your academic period

One (1), 1-3 pages creative writing sample. Your writing sample could be a blog post, a press release, a web article, or any other creative writing piece you have written in the past. Or, you may provide a written statement of a minimum of 300 words addressing the following question:

Why did you choose BC as a study destination? Ideas to help answer this question: How is studying in BC helping you grow personally and/or professionally? Did you learn (or are learning) something new about yourself? How is studying in BC impacted upon your future?

One (1), 300-400 words letter addressing the following questions:

- Why are you applying for the Study in BC Writers' Award?
- What are your plans and goals for your time in BC?
- If selected for this Award, how do you plan on sharing your experiences with other international students?

The application deadline is at 11:59 PM on Sunday, November 1, 2020. Please write "Study in BC Writers' Award Application" in the subject line and submit your application in one PDF (including this checklist) to communication@bccie.bc.ca.

At Study in BC, we encourage creativity. In addition to the required documents, you are welcome to send additional material to support your application such as photographs, past blog entries, etc.

Late or incomplete submission will not be considered.
